

SIX MONTHS AND $1,000 FINE FOR MITCHELL

OREGON SENATOR IS HIT HARD

If His Appeal Fails He Will Have to Serve Time in Prison Stripes in Penitentiary.

PORTLAND, ORE., July 25.—UNITED STATES SENATOR MITCHELL, CONVICTED OF USING HIS OFFICE OF UNITED STATES SENATOR TO FURTHER THE LAW PRACTICE OF THE FIRM OF MITCHELL AND TANNER OF THIS CITY WAS TODAY SENTENCED TO PAY A FINE OF $1,000 AND SIX MONTHS' PENAL SERVITUDE.

PENDING A REVIEW OF THE CASE BY THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, EXECUTION OF THE SENTENCE WILL BE DEFERRED.

IN THE MEANTIME, MITCHELL WILL BE PLACED UNDER BAIL TO THE AMOUNT OF $2,000.

In pronouncing sentence upon the aged United States Senator, Judge De Haven said:

"The statute under which the indictment was found provides that the offense shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than two years or by a fine of not more than $10,000. It also renders the defendant incapable of again holding any office of trust or profit in the United States.

THE STATUTE.

"As I construe the language of the statute the punishment must be both fine and imprisonment, but the court is given great latitude in fixing the amount of fine or imprisonment. The court may make the punishment merely nominal. In pronouncing judgment it is not my purpose to comment upon the evidence or the verdict found by the jury. In reaching a conclusion in this case I have given consideration to the age of the defendant which may be taken into account in mitigation of punishment and the further fact that he is forever hereafter disqualified from holding office.

THE SENTENCE.

"In view of these facts and in consideration of the nature of the offense the judgment of the court is that the defendant be imprisoned for six months in the county jail of Multnomah county in this State, and that he be fined in the sum of $1,000."

MORE EVIDENCE AGAINST BRUTAL THUGS

Man Who Was Beaten by Footpads is Dying—New Clews Secured by Sheriff.

Little by little Sheriff Barnett and his deputies are gathering circumstances and details pointing strongly to John Schneider and George Blaker as being the assailants of Thomas W. Cook, who Saturday night was beaten into insensibility at Twenty-third Avenue and the old County Road, by footpads, robbed of his money and left in a dying condition. At the same time word comes from the bedside of the injured man to the effect that he is dying, and with it goes the last hope of the Sheriff of getting any positive evidence that the men he has under arrest are the ones wanted.

THE BATTLE.

It has been the hope of those engaged in running down the perpetrators of the dastardly crime, that Cook would be able to regain consciousness sufficiently to tell who his assailants were, for it is believed that he knows them, and that it was to keep him from recognizing them that the bludgeons were used with which he was beaten to the ground. It is thought that the struggle continued for some time from the marks about the face, and that Cook could not have failed to recognize his assailants.

TOUGH GANG.

That there is a tough gang of young men who hang around Fruitvale has been known to the Sheriff and Constable for a long time. Schneider, Blaker and Crowhurst, who was the first one arrested, and afterwards given his liberty by Sheriff Barnett, have all been accused by citizens of various offenses, but when it came to prosecute them they were not ready to push their complaints. BOILING SOUP ON A BABY

Two-Year Old Fritz Boecker Dies From Burns.

Child Fell Against Stove and Spilled the Boiling Liquid.

Fritz Boecker, two-year-old son of Mrs. W. Boecker, of 315 Tenth street, died at the Fabiola Hospital at an early hour this morning as a result of being scalded with a kettle of boiling soup last Sunday.

The child was playing near a gas stove on which the soup was being heated. In falling against the stove the child tipped over the pot containing the liquid.

The contents fell directly on the baby, saturating its clothing and frightfully scalding its flesh.

The screams of the child brought the mother to the scene. After hastily removing the little one's clothing the mother applied soothing lotions, and sent for Dr. Nelson, who said the baby was in a critical condition.

The burns proved so severe that the physician finally recommended that the tiny sufferer be removed to Fabiola Hospital. The parents did as directed but the suffering of the baby was relieved by death at an early hour this morning. Coroner Mehrmann has taken charge of the case.

TAFT AND HAWAII

Question of Fortifications for Islands to be Settled.

HONOLULU, July 19, via San Francisco, Cal., July 25.—During his visit here, Secretary Taft expressed himself as continuing to hold the opinion he had expressed before, that free trade should be established with the Philippines as soon as the treaty with Spain, by which Spain has equal privileges with the United States, expires, which will be in two years. The Secretary also stated that he favored a twenty-five per cent reduction of Philippine tariffs at once.

At the close of his address at a luncheon given in honor of the party, he said that he wanted to unite the affairs of Hawaii, Porto Rico, Alaska and the Philippines in one executive bureau of the Government.

"All matters of information about these various islands and Alaska could come to such a bureau," he said, "and Hawaiian citizens in Washington could go to it to discuss the affairs of Hawaii."

Secretary Taft said in an interview that the question of fortifications for Hawaii was one that must be solved soon. To all interviewers he stated in connection with the Chinese Exclusion Law that there was no intention to admit any more coolies, but when informed that some of the Hawaiian planters would like more such laborers, he said that no change of policy in that respect was intended.

REPORT DECLARES AGAINST GOVERNMENT BILL

Proposed Demands of Sweden Upon Norway--Terms Suggested By Committee.

STOCKHOLM, July 25.—The special committee appointed by the Riksdag to deal with the crisis which created the revolution, today delivered its report.

The committee declared unanimously that the government bill cannot be adopted in the form in which it was presented to the Riksdag, and proposes that the Riksdag shall signify its willingness to negotiate with Norway for a dissolution of the union if the newly elected Storting requires a repeal of the act of union and a dissolution of the union, or if such request is received from Norway after the Norwegian people, by a plebiscite have declared in favor of a dissolution of the union.

The committee reports that in the event of a dissolution, Sweden should insist on the following terms:

- 1.—The establishment of a zone on each side of the frontier separating the kingdoms within which the present fortifications will be razed.
- 2.—The right of pasturing reindeer belonging to Swedish Laplanders in North Norway.
- 3.—That the transit trade through both countries shall be secured against objectionable obstruction.
- 4.—That the status of Sweden, in respect to foreign powers as established by treaty shall be clearly defined so that Sweden shall be completely freed from responsibility for Norway to other states.

The committee also regards an arbitration convention between Sweden and Norway, as desirable, although it does not consider it an essential condition for the dissolution of the union.

The committee further proposes to authorize the government to raise a loan of $25,000,000 which can be resold to the Riksdag be made available for such adjustments and arrangements as may be necessitated by the new conditions. "Whatever may be demanded for the welfare and dignity of Sweden as a condition of the repeal of the act of union on the part of Sweden and of the recognition of Norway, must be claimed and adhered to with rigor and determination," says the report.

TIME IS CUT DOWN AGAINST BRUTAL THUGS

No More Shipments of Sugar Crop Around the Horn.

HONOLULU, July 25.—A contract has been signed by the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association and The Hawaiian S. S. Co., for the transportation of the bulk of the Hawaiian sugar crop to the East via the Tehuantepec Railway.

There will be about 250,000 tons annually to go via Tehuantepec route.

It is said that the new method of routing the sugar product will cut down the time of getting it to New York by one-third, and will reduce the cost.

Man of Disordered Mind Tries to Leap From Ferryboat.

Suffering either from the effects of drink or a disordered mind, a middle-aged man who gave the name of Fred Thompson although he had in his pocket a union card with the name of Fred Clark on it, and saying that he lives at 1020 Harrison street, San Francisco, attempted to jump overboard from the ferry boat Piedmont on the 12:20 boat from San Francisco today. When just opposite Goat Island, he threw his hat on the deck with a dramatic gesture, cried out "Good by, all," and leaping up on the rail of the boat was about to jump over when he was grabbed by State Police Officer Tim Duane and kept a prisoner until he arrived safely at the Mele when he was put aboard the Seventh street local as he stated that he wished to come to Oakland.

When asked what his purpose was in jumping overboard, he said that he was going to swim to Goat Island to play ball there, and that the sun would very soon have dried out his clothes. He also said that he had a gold medal he won for swimming forty-five miles, and said that to swim to Goat Island was but child's play. He says that his trade is that of a plumber and the card with the name of Clark on it shows that he has a membership in a plumber's union.

GREAT ALLIANCE OF NATIONS PREDICTED

GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE AND GERMANY IN THE DEFENSIVE.

LONDON, July 25.—From a high official of the Foreign office a press correspondent obtained an interesting statement of the relations between Great Britain, France and Germany. Beginning with the declaration that Great Britain would welcome a defensive alliance with France, because it would insure a long continuance of European peace by acting as a check to German ambitions, the official said that the charge made in the German press against Great Britain, of seeking to involve France in a war with Germany, was absolutely contrary to the facts. He said:

"France certainly is not desirous of war with Germany, and if Great Britain, as alleged, urged France to fight, the French government and press would not now display that friendliness toward us which is apparent on all sides."

"When Germany created the controversy with France over Morocco, the British government informed the French government that it would support it in whatever policy it decided to pursue. Accordingly, Great Britain declined to participate in the international conference when France declined and accepted her decision; but any charge that we sought to bring about war or failed to use our good offices to prevent a conflict is absolutely false. We would undoubtedly have stood by France in any conflict, and we desire an understanding with France solely to insure peace."

"Great Britain in war would suffer infinitely greater commercial losses than her adversary. For one thing, our entire shipping would go to America, and the people would assume an aggressive attitude."

Regarding the diplomatic relations between Germany and Great Britain, press was informed that they were now in the least strained and that there never had been any serious difficulties between the two governments.

It has always been considered here that Germany's attack on the French Moroccan policy was directed at the Anglo-French entente, while well-founded opinions have been expressed that Germany would welcome an understanding with France on Far Eastern matters, in which the interests of the two countries are similar.

"It would seem that France, instead of occupying a begonia role, is the fortunate possessor of two suitors in the greatest rivals in Europe."

NEW SCIENTIFIC PROCESS.

A Preparation Discovered That Will Destroy the Dandruff Germ.
For some time it has been known that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp into little white flakes, and by sapping the vitality of the hair and, of course, finally baldness. For years there have been all kinds of hair stimulants and scalp tonics on the market, but there has been no permanent cure for dandruff until the discovery of a preparation called Newbro's Herpicide, which destroys the dandruff germ. Destroy the cause, the effect will cease to exist. Kill the dandruff germ and you'll have no dandruff, no itching scalp, no falling of the hair, and, of course, finally baldness. CARTER TO REMAIN

He Will Continue To Preside Over Hawaii.

OYSTER BAY, July 25.—Governor Carter of Hawaii went to Oyster Bay yesterday afternoon with a grim, determined air. He had his resignation in his pocket and drove straight to Sagamore Hill and presented it to Roosevelt. But the President would not hear of Carter's resignation. The President believes Carter is a "brick" and a most valuable man in the office and insists that he continue as

The President declined not only to accept his resignation, but told him to go back to work. He said he would have the full support and sympathy of the Presidential Administration. Governor Carter was in a much happier frame of mind than he had been before. He will take a much-needed vacation before returning to his usual, probably in his country, home in the fall. When he returns to Honolulu it will be to resume his official duties with new confidence and vigor.

President Reagan's decision to let Governor Carter alter his conference, "I accept my resignation, but he declined to take my resignation. On the contrary, he said he would have the full support and sympathy of the Presidential Administration and I decided to take his advice. That's the whole story in a nutshell.

Since he was appointed to succeed Governor Dole, who was named as one of the United States District Judges of Hawaii, Governor Carter has encountered difficulty, particularly with officials in the islands. His administration has not been harmonious, evidently through no fault of his. The trouble culminated two or three months ago in the sending by Governor Carter of his resignation to the President. I have been very much concerned because he had great confidence in the Governor's ability to administer Hawaiian affairs as he would have them administered. Finally the Governor decided to resign. I was very much surprised by the situation with the President. He arrived here at 12:20 o'clock yesterday and was driven directly to Saganamore Hill. I felt," said he, "that the best way to handle this situation in Hawaii was for me to resign the Governorship. The President does not think so. We went over the situation fully, and I have accepted his advice and will continue as Governor."

"Who is the principal disturbing element in Hawaii?" he asked.

George H. Dyer, ne representative from the district embracing the islands of the Northern Mariana Islands, said:

"Is the trouble local or is it due to the National Government in this country?"

"Oh, it is purely local," the governor replied. "The trouble is with the home states in the islands. Our general political divisions are about the same as they are in the United States. We have the Republican and Democratic parties. The Republican and Democratic parties are the same. The former is the party which stands for the development of the islands, which goes for the independence of the islands, and the latter is the party which favors annexation."

"The race question has been eliminated practically from our politics. This is a good thing. The only trouble was the race question, but it has been completely advanced in other respects. A law passed at the recent session of the Legislature provides that the United States flag shall be flown every day, and that the national anthem be played every day in session. That law could not have been passed if the race question had been a factor."

been enacted three or four years ago. Governor Carter scarcely hopes for an early restoration of harmony in Hawaii. He says, however, that he will return to the islands determined to do what he thinks right. He believes to be the best for the land and for the people generally. President Roosevelt assured him of his own cordial sympathy and of the support of his administration. He indicated after Governor Carter's talk with him that he not only could not permit Governor Carter to resign, in the circumstances, but that he proposed to send a strongly backed mission to the islands.

NORWEGIAN COLLIER IS IN A BAD POSITION

Many Members of the Crew Have Not Been Heard From Since Vessel Went Ashore.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The vessel in distress is believed to be the Norwegian collier Tricolor.

The records showed that she passed Cape Flattery on Saturday and her nine knot gait would have brought her off Mendocino before daybreak this morning. The Tricolor had twenty-eight men on board.

On the headland close to the wreck is a first class light, but no steam fog whistle. On the new light ship on Blunt Reef, four miles off the cape, are two lights and a fog whistle. The danger is amply marked but the currents are treacherous and the Tricolor is a new ship on this coast and her Captain, H. Wold, has not been long on the run.

The Tricolor is a new steamer, only built last year at Newcastle, England. She came her six months ago after a brief service between New York and China. She is 350 feet long and of 3500 tons burden. She was owned by W. Wilhelmson, one of the largest ship owning firms in Norway and chartered by the Western Fuel Company. It is believed that the crew is safe.

The stranded vessel is lying half a mile above the lighthouse, hard and fast on the rocks. With the approach of morning, those on the vessel busied themselves in seeking a safer place.

The coast opposite the helpless vessel is jagged and abrupt, which made landing there out of the question. The blowing of the fog whistle on the lights, some four or five miles distant, could plainly be heard, and those on shore quickly observed that it had been decided to make an attempt to reach her.

BOATS LOWERED.

Three boats were lowered and as nearly as could be judged, at least thirty people entered them. The lights are stationed southwest of the wreck and when last seen the boats were headed in that direction.

At that hour, which was about 11 o'clock, there was no tug or any other vessel in sight. The ship lay well out of water, and as far as could be observed, was not badly damaged. Heavy seas were breaking over her, however.

It is feared that she will be a total loss.

The steamer Roanoke has arrived here without knowing of the wreck. It had been hoped that she would pick up some of the survivors in the boats, but none were seen.

Whether the boats succeeded in reaching the lights or whether they are still at sea is an open question.

While the blowing of the fog whistle on the lights could be heard, the currents in the vicinity are very perplexing.

FOG IS LIFTING.

The tug Ranger is still down the coast and no word can be expected from her until evening.

It is very probable that the Ranger will succeed in picking up the boats, all of which left the doomed ship together, and which, it is believed, will have no difficulty in keeping within hearing and seeing distance.

The fog is reported to be lifting.

APPELLATE COURT
DECIDES CASES

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—The Appellate Court today handed down several decisions. In the suit of Henry Wieland, plaintiff and respondent, against the Southern Pacific (Fresno county), an action for damages, the judgment of the Superior Court finding for the plaintiff is reversed.

A reversal is also entered against the Superior Court of Fresno county, in the suit of K. Alberly against Ben. F. Geis. Geis sued for a dissolution of partnership and an accounting and was defeated. The Appellate Court holds there should have been a complete winding up of the affairs of the co-partnership and a full accounting.

The judgment of the Superior Court of Fresno county of A. B. Butler against Richard DeLafayette in favor of the defendant is sustained. The action grew out of a fruit shipment transaction.

A youth of Chaldea was vigorously rubbing a large bump on his head, while his face denoted pain.

"Nay," replied the youth, with another vigorous rub of the bump on his head, "my girl just sent back a letter of mine, and I got it."

Then he turned and drove his ice wagon hurriedly away.

"O, sir," said the driver, pleasantly, "you see, the people in that house do not get up until an hour or so later, and they need not know whether the wet spot on the steps was made by ice or plain water. They never get any ice, anyway. I must hurry away, now, because at 10 o'clock I must be back to collect."

And he drove gaily away—Baltimore American.

Makes Statement Relative to Equitable Life Matters.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Respecting the Equitable Life matters, E. H. Harriman said today:

"There has been nothing in the relations of myself or the interest I represent to the Equitable Life Assurance Society and its allied companies that will not bear scrutiny. We have never requested nor received a favor from them. The few transactions between our interests have been insignificant.

"I personally have had with the Equitable Life which I could have obtained without difficulty at any other like responsible institution on as good or better terms.

"There is nothing in the Union Pacific preferred stock syndicate that can be criticized. An opportunity was availed of to join myself and associates in the acquisition of Union Pacific preferred stock on a favorable basis. There was no profit to any one member of the syndicate.

"There has been too much mystery surrounding the Equitable affairs. I have always been ready and willing to answer any questions asked by any one entitled to do so, and have never tried in any way to avoid it, and will return in ample time to give any testimony desired."

ONLY FEES FOR CONSTABLES

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—The District Court of Appeal for the Third Appellate District today rendered a decision declaring Subdivision 13 of Section 134, of the County Government Act, unconstitutional. This is the section which provides for the classification of townships by population in counties of the twenty-seventh class (Napa), for the purpose of fixing the compensation of constables and justices of the peace. The effect of this decision is far-reaching, as it goes to every township in the State, the constables and justices of the peace of which are on salary, and will cause these officials to go back to the old fee system.

While the law was declared by some courts to be constitutional, the decisions were rendered on points entirely different from those passed upon today by the Appellate Court. The decision was brought about by the appeal by the Superior Court of Napa county, holding the law to be unconstitutional, the decision being rendered in the case of W. D. Johnson against H. L. Gunn, as Auditor of Napa county, to compel the latter to draw his warrant for $55, a month's salary under the terms of the section of the County Government Act referred to.

QUEER DERIVATIONS.

Was "bonfire" originally written "bonefire" and were "bone-fires" actually so called from the burning of the martyrs? This is one theory of the origin of the word. From ancient times bonfires have formed a striking part of the celebration of St. John's eve, or Midsummer eve.

Sheriff Frank Barnett spent several hours with Pembroke this afternoon sweating him and he states that he hopes before 12 o'clock tonight to have all of them so entangled in each others stories that some of them will be led to make a confession. Up to the present time all of them have been kept incommunicado.

MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR MACDONOUGH THEATER

Manager Guy C. Smith Returns
From a Meeting With Managers in New York.

There will be no dark nights at the Macdonough theater after the season opens the latter part of August. Manager Guy C. Smith, accompanied by Van E. Britton, press agent for the Macdonough, returned from a tour of the East and the North this morning. On their way south they stopped at Portland Exposition for a few days.

While in New York Mr. Smith met all the prominent theatrical men in the country, and with Charles P. Hall, proprietor of the Hall California Circuit, which includes the Macdonough theater, discussed the theatrical situation in the West.

HAS CONFIDENCE.

Mr. Smith returns having the greatest confidence in the theatrical season next year. He is of the opinion that California will have star attractions during the winter that will certainly draw large houses, not only in Oakland, but throughout the Western circuit.

Mr. Smith states that he had a very pleasant trip both going and coming. He finds the country very prosperous in the East, and all the Eastern theatrical managers are looking toward California as a great theatrical center.

This year all are anxious to book for California, while heretofore it was a difficult matter to get them to sign up for this State, and frequently a bonus had to be paid before they would bring their attractions here.

ROOSEVELT POPULAR.

Mr. Smith states that President

Roosevelt is very popular in the West, and he believes that should be aspirer for the third term for President. However, the President states that he will not be a candidate for the third term, and the people in the East are looking for his successor, and many believe that the President will suggest the name of Secretary Taft for President.

In speaking of his trip East, Mr. Smith said regarding the theatrical situation:

"There are more producers and more theaters in the field this season than there has been heretofore, and all of them are of a high grade. Probably the most successful of the younger playwrights and actors is George Cohan, who will be seen on the coast in his latest scene 'Little Johnny Jones.'"

Among the bright and musical comedies now running in New York is 'Fantasia' with Jefferson De Angelis, an old California playwright, in the leading role.

"The Heir to the Throne" is the worthy successor to 'Ariston.' It is considered by many the most successful production of the season, and will be seen for an extended engagement in this city.

"Mr. Hall has arranged for the patrons of the Macdonough the best attractions that have ever been seen in this city during the season.

"The outlook is exceedingly bright for a most prosperous season."

NOT DRUNK, JUST AN ELECTRIC FIT

Allice Specht told Police Judge Samuels this morning that she was subject to "electric" fits and that it was not true as the officer had said that she was drunk. Allice did not attempt to explain the presence of the quart bottle of whiskey on her or whether this was the cause of her electric fits. The court was good natured and as it was her first offense he let her go with a warning to avoid electricity as represented by the demon rum.

COTTON MARKET
MAKES NEW RECORD

NEW ORLEANS, July 25.—The cotton market recorded another record price for the season, being 15 to 17 higher than yesterday's final. October sold at 12.25, an advance of 15 points; December 11.50, an advance of 10 points; and January 11.32, an advance of 17 points. Bad crop reports and news of large areas of abandoned land because of overwatering to the principal cotton producing states was again in the market and that a lot of goods had been raised at Fair River.

STEAMER DAKOTA IN TROUBLE

SEATTLE, Wash., July 25.—The S. S. Dakota of the Great Northern Pacific's fleet was disabled off Cape Flattery last night and has turned back to Seattle. Grinding and the discharge of brass cutting and excessive heat of the bulkhead indicate that port tail shaft has been fractured at the inner bearings. The Dakota will probably be sent to the Puget Sound Navy Yard dry dock.

The Minnesota can be sent to sea with the cargo and passengers of the Dakota as soon as she can coal.

SAN JOSE'S NEW THEATER.

More than 2500 people attended the two performances at the Victory Theater in San Jose last evening on the occasion of the opening of this magnificent playhouse to vaudeville by the Bell Circuit. Manager Sam Harris was very much in evidence and as a result of a week's hard work of preparation, the opening was a brilliant success.

It is the first time San Jose has had an opportunity to patronize a really first-class vaudeville house. That the amusement-loving people of that city are appreciative of the privilege is demonstrated by the two big houses which greeted the players. The Victory here has been the best of the best in the class one and the night stand companies. It is the intention of the Bell people to present drama, tragedy, comedy, etc., as well as vaudeville during the fall and winter season.

Mr. Harris announced to the audience that it was the purpose of the management to offer the best that the profession provides. He hoped that was what San Jose wanted and in return for the company's efforts he asked for the support and patronage of the people.

The theater has been remodeled and put in first-class condition. Twenty cents is charged for all seats downstairs, the balcony and galleries being ten cents. Last night's bill included Niagara, the sensational bicycle stunts who have such a hit two weeks ago; Richard Burton, Smith and Ellis, Carlyle and Baker, Hal-Fen and Hays, and De Wit, the wizard in magic and illusion.

SIX SAILORS BATTLING FOR THEIR LIVES

Examination of the Bennington will Proceed With All Possible Haste.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 25.—There is little hope that the burial chapter of the Bennington incident is finally closed, for half a dozen of the badly injured sailors are lingering between life and death, and for some of them there is little chance of recovery.

The six men who are battling bravely for life are receiving every comfort and assistance that skill and sympathy can give.

A well equipped temporary hospital has been arranged at the army barracks in the city, and to this all the injured who could be safely moved were taken from the hospital last night. The sufferers are not in want of comforts or whatever luxuries are good for them. Flowers, fruit and delicacies, with cisers for those who are permitted to smoke, are offered in abundance to cheer them.

The removal of the Bennington to a position alongside a pier will facilitate examination of her interior.

The supply ship Iris, from San Francisco, arrived this morning. She has on board divers and diving outfits, and the work along the bottom of the vessel will be begun today.

As soon as the Iris came alongside the Bennington, the work of the stores taken out of the flooded aft storeroom, the useful stuff being put on the supply ship.

All of the equipment, including the ammunition and batteries, with the exception of the main guns and mounts will be transferred, in order to lighten the Bennington sufficiently to permit the making of repairs that will allow the vessel to be towed to Mare Island.

Navy Constructors Evans, Lieutenants N. N. Mitchell and E. B. Larimer, and Surgeon C. T. Kindelberger, all of Mare Island, and Surgeon F. B. McCullough of the Yerba Buena Station, have reported to Captain Drake, Commander Ransome, chief engineer at Mare Island, probably will arrive today. Admiral Goodrich is expected to arrive on the flagship Chicago tomorrow or Thursday, when a board of inquiry will be appointed to make a thorough investigation into the cause of the explosion.

PROPOSE GREAT CHANGE IN PANAMA CANAL

Government May Not Construct It—Suggest That Work Be Let To Contractors.

CHICAGO, July 25.—In a special and exclusive dispatch to the Record-Herald from Washington Walter Wellman says: An important change of policy in regard to the Panama canal is now under serious consideration. It is nothing less than the proposal that the Government abandon the effort to construct the canal directly through its own agencies, and that the whole or a greater part of the enterprise be let to contractors, American and foreign.

This suggestion has been made to President Roosevelt, and the President has discussed it with Secretaries Taft, Root and Clegg, and with the chief of the canal enterprise. It is as yet too early to say that the proposed policy is to be adopted, but the possibilities are that it will be as soon as possible.

President Roosevelt is about half convinced that the cheapest and most direct way to dig the canal is to get the job in readiness for contracting, subdivide the work into specialties and then invite contractors of all the world to submit bids. Modern contracting, like almost everything else, is a work of specialists. One man or firm is great on submarine work, another in rock, a third in dredging, a fourth in dams and locks, and so on.

The general contracting scheme, however, will have to wait until the International Commission of Engineers decides what sort of a canal we are going to build. Among the most intelligent engineers the idea of fast gaining ground that a sea-level canal would be a useless waste of money and time. A few locks can do the job, and every engineer, as well as every man that has visited the Sault Ste. Marie locks, knows that good locks can do the job. It is likely to go through the isthmus for 100 years, and put ships through quickly than a sea-level canal of too restricted cross section.

ROOSEVELT WILL AID HIM

HAS PRESIDENT'S SYMPATHY IN MUNICIPAL BATTLE IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—Evidence that Mayor Weaver has the thorough sympathy of President Roosevelt and his Cabinet in his efforts to wipe out municipal corruption in Philadelphia are daily multiplying. The latest and most significant indication is found in the assignment of Major Gillette of the engineer corps to assist in the investigation of the Torredale filter plant.

Major Gillette was ordered from San Francisco some days ago and arrived here last Friday, but did not see Mayor Weaver until this morning, when he was understood that his appointment was directly due to the advice of Secretary of State Root.

It was due to the work of Major Gillette at Savannah that Captain William M. Carter was sent to prison and Gaynor and Greene to exile in Canada.

Major Gillette's appointment was a great surprise to the politicians. It is pointed out that Secretary Taft would never have assigned an army officer to an investigation of municipal affairs in this or any other city, nor would Secretary Root have urged such an assignment unless those officials he has been satisfied that this move would be in accord with the wishes of President Roosevelt, and would have his hearty approval and endorsement.

It means, it is argued, that President Roosevelt believes that his Secretary of State, that Mayor Weaver is engaged in a task that should have the encouragement of every lover of good government, and that that reason is ready to aid Weaver in every way in his power.

It is further believed to be a direct blow at Senator Penrose's control of the State organization.

SEALS SPORT IN LAKE CHABOT

SHOT AT BY CRUEL VISITORS—WATER CLEAR OF ALGAE.

The seals played in Lake Chabot to rid its waters of the carp that in an evil hour were planted there many years ago are fulfilling their mission successfully. They number eleven, and appear to enjoy their life in fresh water. They do not increase, however, because the young cannot live outside the seal's native habitats of salt water.

Several seals played in the lake have died of gunshot wounds wantonly inflicted by trespassing hunters or visitors who have violated hospitality and humanity by firing at the harmless animals after being granted the courtesy of admission to the grounds. Shooting at the seals and other abuses of the visiting privileges have so provoked the directors of the water company that all visitors save persons specially invited, are denied admission to the grounds. The seals have developed a remarkable fondness for human companionship. They manifest a playful pleasure at being noticed, and whenever the little gasoline launch takes anyone out on the water several of the seals follow it, leaping and gamboling in a most amusing manner. They disport themselves in a particularly lively way if called to encourage, acting as good deal like water dogs. They seem to understand that their performances are giving pleasure, and strive to show off their swimming accomplishments.

After many years of unsuccessful effort the Contra Costa managers have succeeded in getting rid of the algae which has appeared on the surface of the lake every summer. The water is as clear as a mountain lake, and breaks into ripples at every passing breeze. It was never before in such perfect condition. Manager McGary is confident that he has finally solved the problem of keeping the lake clear of the algae which has heretofore been such a constant source of annoyance.

The shores of the lake have been cleaned up till they look spick and span, and stock are no longer grazed on the thousands of acres surrounding it. The grounds in the vicinity of the dam have been greatly improved, and late by the planting of trees and flowers and sowing of grass.

WANT INFORMATION.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The Inter-Ocean today says:

A big convention of policy-holders, for the purpose of demanding an investigation of the affairs of every life insurance company in the country, is the aim of the Iroquois Club of Chicago, which has taken the initial step toward starting a national movement.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the club, held yesterday, a resolution was adopted empowering the organization to appoint a committee of five members to invite delegates from other clubs to meet and consider the feasibility of the plan.

DRINKS BOTTLE OF INK TO FRIGHTEN SWEETHEART

Said the bullfrog to the owl
"What'll you have to drink?"
"Since you are, so very kind,
"I'll take a bottle of ink."
—Old Song

ST. LOUIS, July 25.—After making several futile and apparently bona fide attempts to end his life at No. 2571 Lucas Avenue, Al Jieroff, foreman in Armour's packing establishment in East St. Louis, helped doctors to diagnose his ailment by grasping a bottle of ink that stood on the desk of the hospital reception room and swallowing its contents.

Love for Jessie Barnes prompted Jieroff to pretend to end his existence, he says. On a cot in the hospital he joked about his would-be-dead throats of earlier in the morning, but he clung to the statement that he really had taken a dose of chloroform.

On his neck were many scratches, inflicted by a dull knife, which he told the doctors "would not cut hot butter."

Those in charge of the reception room were at a loss for a diagnosis after Jieroff had been examined thoroughly. His statement that he had poisoned himself was not believed, and to make doubly sure that he would receive treatment for poisoning he reached across the desk and seized the ink.

Before the doctor in charge could remonstrate, Jieroff had downed the putrid stuff, smacking his lips in satisfaction.

"Well," he said, "if I wasn't poisoned before, I am now. I guess that ink'll help the chloroform some, won't it?"

Without further ado, the doctors got busy with a stomach pump, and placed Jieroff out of danger.

CHEW OF TOBACCO CAUSE OF LAWSUIT

SYRACUSE, July 25.—Just because the late Harlow O. Rowland stopped the procession at his wife's funeral and asked "Poke" Abbott for a chew of tobacco, an attempt is being made to secure a decree of the court declaring that he was incompetent to make a valid will. Of course, there are other reasons which are advanced by the contestant, but none of them are quite so interesting, and surely none of them received the same amount of attention from the opposing counsel.

This evidence was given this morning before Surrogate Glass in the contest of Mr. Rowland's will by his son, Frank, who received nothing under the provisions of his father's will. There is $10,000 or more in the estate of old Mr. Rowland, but Frank Rowland got none of it. The other children received their shares and now they claim that Frank, being the eldest, received his share during the father's life.

One witness called by the contestant and examined by Mr. Hancock for Frank, testified that she went to Mrs. Rowland's funeral, and that Mr. Row-

PECULIAR NAME FOR MRS. ROOSEVELT'S HOME

"Plain Dealing,"—that is the name, so characteristic of the family, that Mrs. Roosevelt has given to the country place she bought recently near Charlottesville, Va. and to which she will retire during the Washington season when life at the White House becomes so exhausting that she needs a few days' rest. But it is not only for herself that Mrs. Roosevelt purchased the five old place, five hours by rail from Washington, in beautiful rolling country for which she is said to have paid only $400. It was that the three younger children, of an age when they need plenty of exercise and out of door life, might have opportunity to get into the country to play, unconfined and unrestricted by city conventions and the fact that they are "the president's children." Mrs. Roosevelt is a firm believer in country life for children, and she means that hers shall have it as much as she may be able to arrange for.

Nothing could be plainer than Plain Dealing, and at first glance it is evident that it is not to "entertain" that Mrs. Roosevelt is going to the country. The house itself is the simplest sort of a cottage of six rooms, and although some alterations are being made they are of a sort that conduce to comfort and not to ostentation. The grounds consist of about fifteen acres, most of it thickly wooded, and the children will be allowed to roam about on their own territory without molestation. The place was part of an old Virginia estate known as Springfield, and was once owned by a New Yorker.

NO MODERN CONVENIENCES.

The cottage is entirely without modern conveniences, there not even being water. The latter is obtained from a well by the side of the house which works in the old "sweep" fashion.

Although comparatively little work is being done in reconstruction it is of a kind that will show, for the entire lower floor, which originally consisted of three rooms, is being made into one. This gives an effect of space that is delightful, and a large brick fireplace is the picturesque means of heating. One corner of the room is being arranged as the dining-room, and about this is placed a narrow shelf about eight feet from the floor that serves as a rest for plates and other old bits of china. The kitchen is exceedingly picturesque and so simple that it would be a guarantee of simple dinners only. It is on the back porch and its walls on two sides are masses of flowering vines. There is a small oil cook stove and as few

FATHER AND THEN SON WED THE SAME WOMAN

CINCINNATI, O., July 25.—A peculiar romance was developed at the Marriage License Bureau when Fred D. Kreutz applied for a license to wed Miss Margaret Kernan. According to their story, T. L. Kreutz, the father, is at present in St. Louis. Under the impression, they said, that his wife had sued for divorce, T. L. Kreutz was wedded in New York City to Miss Kernan.

Subsequently it developed that Mrs. Kreutz No. 1 had not secured a divorce from her husband at the time of his wedding to Miss Kernan. Upon this development T. L. Kreutz and Miss Kernan separated. Mrs. Anna Westerkamp Kreutz continued the proceedings and secured the divorce.

The next step in the matrimonial tangle was taken when the son of T. L. Kreutz appeared and got a license to wed Miss Kernan. If she had been legally wedded to his father she would now be his stepmother.

Fred Kreutz was accompanied to the License Bureau by his bride-to-be and by his mother, Mrs. Anna Westerkamp Kreutz, who had secured her divorce.

THE WIDOWER AND HIS LACK OF ROMANCE

The fascination of the widow is proverbial. Why is it that her masculine counterpart, the recently bereaved husband, should be so generally devoid of anything resembling her charm?

Of course, the widower is a worthy member of society, and his second very generally has far more reason to thank her matrimonial stars than his first.

But he is not, he cannot be, in any sense, an object of romance. Even the novelist can do nothing for him. Thackeray tried it, and scored his worst failure. For who reads "The Widower," nowadays? And I personally, have never forgiven him for foisting the commonplace Rosie upon the defenseless Clive Newcomb when he might just as well have had Ethel in the first place.

Dickens made the widower more palatable in Copperfield. But after all our interest in David's first unhappy experiment with his dear little child-wife Dora far exceeds that we take in his subsequent marriage to Agnes, charming and lovable as Dickens tried to make her.

There is something altogether inexplicable in the widower's lack of romance. We have all seen the most commonplace little housewife transformed by the sad accident of widowhood into a person of bewildering charm, without being able to tell whether it is the illuminating touch of sorrow or of black that has brought the metamorphosis about.

It may be that the widower's lack of the charm so prevalent and so potent among widows is due to the absence of becoming weeds. Why isn't there some masculine equivalent for the widow's fascinating tresses? Of course, no mourning is better than the frightful rattlesnake arrangement of hands on the arm. But it is to be feared that even a whole mourning trousseau made by a London tailor would not take from the widower his dear prosiness.

Of course the widower, despite his unromantic handicap, has no trouble in getting married again. Indeed, in his widowhood he is like so many of the fairy-tale princesses, our old friend the Sleeping Beauty and others—destined to marry the first person his eyes open on.

Instead of exclaiming in holy horror when one of our widower friends marries his cook we should give thanks that he saw her before the scullery maid or one of the poor old women that grind music and misery on a street corner for the distraction of the charitably inclined.

It really seems that when a woman becomes a widow she is like a grub suddenly transformed into a butterfly. But with a man the reverse process takes place, and the winged playfellow of the rose garden becomes a sad, dull, earth-colored grub, waiting patiently for some woman—any woman—to come along, that he may go on grubbing for a living for her.

WOMAN WITH DOGS JILTED AT DINNER, AND GUN HOLDS POLICE AT BAY

NEW YORK, July 25.—Mrs. Elizabeth Morey Hobby, the wealthiest woman in Coney Island, held five big policemen at bay for over an hour yesterday at her home in West 14th street and defied them to arrest her. She had the assistance of four big vicious looking dogs and held a double barreled shotgun, a combination which the policemen decided should be dealt with diplomatically.

The trouble began when John Dunn, following instructions from Lawyer Somerville, of No. 163 Montague street, Brooklyn, began to make alterations on a boat house at West 14th street, preparatory to its removal. Mrs. Hobby objected, and with her dogs and the shotgun drove Dunn away, glad, as he declares, to escape with his life.

A policeman sent to inquire was also forced to retreat. Two other policemen met with a similar reception, and finally the reinforcements sent brought the total strength of the invading force up to five. Even then the redoubtable woman, in spite of her three score years, held the fort with her dogs and her gun.

One diplomat among the minions of the law, who, his associates say, has kissed the Blarney stone, won the aged defender's favor and made her believe they were looking for Dunn and desired only to protect her from any annoyance he might have contemplated causing her. The dogs were called off, the terrible gun was lowered and the invaders swarmed over the breastworks. Mrs. Hobby was arrested and taken to the Coney Island Police Station.

She was a walking arsenal. Two loaded revolvers were found on her and she carried a formidable-looking iron bar. When the search had ended the angry woman whipped out a butcher knife which had been concealed in the folds of her dress and hurled it at Sergeant McGowan, narrowly missing his head.

Mrs. Hobby was held on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. When taken to a cell she begged that her pet cats and dogs be sent for. She is said to own $50,000 worth of real estate at Coney Island.

Hundreds of thousands of American women are born, live their lives and die in boarding-houses or hotels without ever finding time to create a home for themselves, without even feeling a desire to do so.

NEW YORK, July 25.—William Finkenstern, of Seneca, N. Y., has decided that marriage, especially with a city girl, would be a grand failure.

But there was trouble yesterday when, in the restaurant of the Hotel Metropole, he gently conceded his decision to Eva Finkelstone, an ample looking maid of twenty-five, who had firmly fixed her mind on being Mrs. Finkenstern.

She felt so badly that she immediately threw a plate of croquettes and peas at the neck of Mr. Finkenstern. It struck him in the chest, and the perfection of her aim encouraged Miss Eva to hurl a few dinner plates, a pepper box, a salt cellar and some harmless looking crabs on toast at her one-time admirer.

Then she hastily removed a white mantle that rested on her plump shoulders and threw it over the head of the dazed Mr. Finkenstern, and smashed a bottle of champagne on his head.

By this time Mr. Finkenstern was anxious to leave the restaurant, and started for the door. But the fair Eva grabbed a bottle of ketchup and hurled its contents over him. Finkenstern dodged forth into the street in time to run into the arms of Policeman O'Flaherty, who gasped in horror at his appearance.

Before he had time to demand an explanation Miss Finkelstone emerged and belabored Finkenstern with her parasol.

It required the aid of O'Flaherty and two citizens to arrest her. Miss Finkelstone needed further subduing when she was placed on a Seventh Avenue car bound for the West 14th Street Police Station, where she was being locked up on a charge of assault.

"What's all this?" began Finkenstern cautiously, as he looked at Miss Finkelstone. "My father left me a fortune, and I thought it would be a good thing to come to New York and marry a city girl. I met you and liked her, but her plan was to be so married to the whole family, and I decided a country girl would be better. I told Mrs. of this to her restaurant. I am sorry that I slipped away and saw nothing."

"So you did," said the policeman.

ANGRY WOMAN AND A BEAUTY DOCTOR

NEW YORK, July 24.—One kick from the pretty foot of Mrs. Josephine Ware and the beauty pill was overturned.

Events in the Tombs Police Court yesterday justified the old familiar quotation "Hell has no fury like a woman made half-beautiful."

Mrs. Ware went to Dr. A. L. Nelden at the blushing age of 45—indeed, Mrs. Ware is quite above flattery, and the "beauty doctor" went to jail charged with obtaining money under false pretensions.

Tethered out on $1000 bail, Dr. Nelden last night bemoaned his fate and Mrs. Ware's lack of confidence in his skill as an eraser of wrinkles, reducer of double chins, transplanter of noses and ears and general face fixer.

"Mrs. Ware lacked faith," he sorrowfully said. "She did not trust herself entirely to my methods. She was irregular in attendance. She was too anxious and in altogether too much of a hurry. But now it is all over," and the doctor smiled faintly, evidently at the thought of a woman's predicament who has been made but half-beautiful. It is not quite over for Dr. Nelden. His case was adjourned only until Monday next. Meantime the beauty doctor will get busy.

"I will find plenty of witnesses who will testify as to the effectiveness of my methods," he continued, when the coming police court hearing was called to his attention.

"Your methods" was questioned.

"Sometimes I use a knife," he admitted, "as, for instance, in the case of puffs under the eyes. I cut the puffs out and with the aid of ointments and other preparations cause the cuts to heal without leaving a scar."

Note—Nelden has distinct puffs under his own eyes.

AND HER NOSE REMODELED.

Here Dr. Nelden saw a sudden light and went on. "Mrs. Ware has forgotten her nose. It was in a dreadful condition when she came to me. I remodeled and straightened it, for her with subcutaneous injections. She is certainly 50 per cent better looking than when she first came to me, and if she had remained she would have reached the 100 per cent mark—absolutely beautiful."

The police gave forth a list of testimonials found in the former Beauty Temple. They are not the sort that a beauty doctor rushes into print with. In fact, they are the sort that should have been destroyed—kicks about face ointments not working, noses that stayed crooked and ears that would not stand up properly.

Mrs. Ware's description of the attendants at the Beauty Temple will live ever in the minds of the susceptible young men of the District Attorney's office: "His stenographer was a ravishing brunette," she said, "the maids were all stunning blondes with splendid figures and peach-blow complexions. Even the cook was handsome—a superb octoberoon."

And Mrs. Ware has scattered this galaxy of beauty.

Isn't it a shame?

tender feet who insist upon wearing patent leather shoes in warm weather don't know," said a salesman in a shoe store, "is that a small hole bored on either side of the shoe, about one inch from the sole and close to the instep, will give them more comfort than all the foot-ease powders ever manufactured. The holes pump in the air while the wearer is walking and keep the feet cool."

Mme. de Remusat had features so perfect that her contemporaries said she was worthy to sit as a model for a Greek goddess. The flesh of her face closely resembled alabaster and yet she was not pale and did not give the impression of being in delicate health. Her beauty attracted universal attention to her, no matter where she went, and even in old age she retained most of her good looks.

To darken light red hair make a tea by pouring a pint of boiling water over an ounce of henna leaves broken. Cover and let it steep until the liquid is cold. Have the hair washed and thoroughly dried. Then apply the tea with a brush, letting it stay on for half an hour. Wash again in warm clear water. The tint may be darkened even more by making the tea stronger and letting it stay longer on the hair.

Many argue that flowers should be kept away from sickrooms, lest they exhaust the air, etc. That is true with certain flowers, such as the lilies and lilac, but a few roses, mignonette, or violets will prove to be most refreshing and reviving to weary eyes and depressing spirits—which is the real ministry of flowers.

A certain little rick of a French hair-dresser will be found a comfort in hot weather, when the hair is sticky, stringy and uncurable. It is to touch it about the face, and ears with the powder puff, then brush it out immediately with light, short strokes. The powder carries the oily moisture with it, and leaves the hair soft and fluffy and ready for the iron.

One thing that most persons with gulp down huge quantities of fluid, with the result that excessive perspiration sets in and a very uncomfortable and unrelieved feeling follows.

This remedy for soft corns will afford relief. Have a little turpentine in a small bottle, with a small camel's hair brush touch the corn with this every night, and at the end of a fortnight the corn should come out easily. Do not let the turpentine run onto the adjoining skin, or it will be made sore.

In manicuring the nails soak in warm olive oil. This softens the surrounding cuticle and stimulates the growth, besides strengthening the substance of the nail itself. Lemon juice is most invaluable for beautifying the hands and preserving the finger nails spotless and pink.

For rheumatism try the very simple cure of boiling water. Take at least a pint before retiring at night. The object of taking boiling water late at night is that during the hours you are resting and the digestion is not tired, the boiling water can do its work on the gastric juices.

It is a common experience that the more a person drinks to satisfy the demands of thirst in hot weather the worse she feels. The temptation is to

BIG FELLOWS
SOME

Fight fans are interested in the meeting of the two big fellows—Al Kaufman and C. Hillard—before the Hawthorne Club tomorrow evening.

In his workouts with big Jim McCormick, who is matched to box Gus Ruhlin, Hillard showed to excellent advantage. No matter how hard or fast the blows were rained upon him by the big heavyweight, the Texan stood his ground and never backed up. He is a veritable gizzard for punishment, and if any of his ponderous swings should happen to hit the shifty Kaufman the Olympic Club crack will say good-by to his championship laurels.

When Al Young saw Hillard at work he decided to nurse him along and teach him the art of boxing, and he now has him to the point where he feels confident that he will take Kaufman's measure. Hillard has been thoroughly tried out, as Marvin Hart had him in his training quarters when he was training for his battle with Jack Johnson.

The remainder of the card follows: Johnny Beach of the Olympic Club vs. Jimmy Carroll of the Occidental Club, 135 pounds; Jim Kase of Coosa Hollow vs. John Brown of the Hawthorne Club; John Rodney of Ocean View vs. Jack Eggert of the Hawthorne Club, 130 pounds; Frank Elmer of the Olympic Club vs. Pete Sullivan, Hawthorne Club, 135 pounds; William Christie, Hawthorne Club vs. Otto Knock, unattached, 145 pounds; Jack McLaughlin, English champion vs. Jack Hampton of New Orleans, 145 pounds.

The bouts, which will be held in Woodward's Pavilion, will be refereed by Ed Smith.

AUSTIN TEAM LOSES TO SMITHS

The W. Smiths of Oakland defeated the Austins by the score of 7 to 4. The feature of the game was a one-hand stab at F. White, the first baseman for the Smiths, who made an almost impossible catch. Carl Johnson's perfect pitching was caught well by C. Broad. King made good at short, getting everything.

The following is the line-up of the Smiths: Pitcher, Carl Johnson; catcher, C. Broad; first base, F. White; second base, G. Newman; third base, F. Newman; shortstop, F. King; right field, A. center field, H. Simpson; left field, C. Lambert.

We will play any amateur ball team in the State. Address all challenges to J. M. Simpson, 361 Eighth street, Oakland, Cal.

GAME WANTED

The Mosswoods defeated the Key Routes by a score of 21 to 15 Sunday.

The Mosswoods is a new team, age average 12 years, and would like to hear from any other team of the same age. Address all challenges to Royce Haswell, 486 Sherman street, Oakland, Cal.

THINGS ABOUT

PORTLAND, July 25.—During the Seattle race meeting that came to a close at The Meadows there was distributed to horseowners over $75,000, which is a good bit of the coin of the realm. The winning owners are as follows:

Will Summers & Co., $370
Mrs. James Coffey, $250
H. E. Rowell, $180
T. S. McLaughlin, $130
Parker City Stable, $120
J. F. McNeil, $110

The jockey league is the winning jockey both in point of firsts and percentage. He finished first 37 times during the course of the meeting. C. Clark, 20; B. Powell, 21; Herbert and T. Stewart, 20; W. Smith and Crosswhite, 17.

Probably the best jockeys who have come to Portland for the Irvington meeting are League, Ots, I. Powell, C. Clark, F. Kelly and Alvin. Among the most promising among the lighter lads are Benny Powell, W. Smith and C. Clark. There are a number of good riders among the racers at the track now. They include, Hugh McGowan, Corn Blossom, Mindanao, St. George Junior, Funny-side, Overbore, Whiskey Line, Stillho, Gloomy Gus, Sea Air and Epilure.

Among the favorite riders might be mentioned Billy Chan, Mitty's Pride, Laidlaw, Tocolaw, Queen Cup and Cerro Santa. Funny-side will be the best horse in the mud at Irvington, being strictly a mud-jack, a fact that the dopers will do well to remember.

MIKE FISHER
MUST BURN
HIS HAT

Mike Fisher says that his ballplayers went on a strike last night, but that he agreed to the terms they set forth and the trouble is over. Inquiry as to the cause of the strike revealed the fact that the players came to the conclusion that the new straw hat purchased by Fisher had something to do with the trouble.

"I see," explains Fisher, "I bought that hat the first game we lost here, and the boys think that is why we lost the two games. I have agreed to let them burn the hat on the home plate this afternoon, and I guess that will bring the strike to an end."

FRESNO TEAM PROUD OF IT'S SHORT STOP

ARTHUR SHIMPF, Fresno's fast shortstop, is considered by many to be the best in the State League. He was but recently signed by the raisin team. In fact, there are his admirers in Fresno say that Shimpff would make Buck Francis' hustle to keep his job with Oakland's Coast League band of hope. Shimpff is also "there" with the stick and he is hitting out the leather at a .300 clip.

WHEN SMILING
METZNER MET
KELLY
TO YOUNG
CORBETT

Jimmy Gardner with his brother George, are located at "Smiling" Metzner's training quarters at Larkspur. Joe Angell has been engaged as sparring partner and Jimmy has been to get read for his fight with Rufe Turner next month.

Gardner is a rangy, shifty boxer and has a good punch with either hand. With both men in good condition, there is little chance of the bout going the limit, as both Turner and Gardner have the punch that puts out their opponent.

It may interest some to know that "Smiling" Metz is contemplating entering the ring. There are not many that know Metz, has a decision over "Rawhide" Kelly, the pug that sued Battling Nelson for what he claimed was coming at him for acting as "Bat's" sparring partner.

Metz went on the witness stand and testified to what Kelly claimed favored Nelson. A few days later "Rawhide" called on Metz, and accused him of telling lies on the stand.

Words followed and Kelly landed a punch on Metzner's jaw and for once in his life the smile left "Smiling's" face. He made a rush at Kelly and the blows flew thick and fast. Kelly landed a good one on Metzner's jaw, but the smiling never stopped. He simply asked, "Is that the hardest you can hit, you sucker?" No wonder you quit for $7 in Frisco.

This made Rawhide go all the faster and Metz looked anxious. Harry Foley, who was standing near by, came to Metz's rescue, calling to him to get a baseball bat.

"Smiling" stopped fighting and ran for the bat, when he returned, the only thing he could see was Kelly's coat tails going over the hill on the road to San Rafael.

For this reason Metz claims a decision over Mr. "Rawhide" Kelly. He is now taking lessons from an old time fighting friend named Murphy, who is camping at Larkspur, and says that if he improves as much in the next month as he did in the last one, he will issue a challenge to "Billy" Shannon, who has training quarters at San Rafael and was at one time a great fighter.

WINNING
GAME

The Westover baseball team played and won its first game Sunday from the Watts Tract Stars by a score of 10 to 5.

The Westovers play the Golden Gates Sunday at Golden Gate and would like to hear from any team averaging 16 or 17 years. Line-up as follows: Catcher, Red Jensen; pitcher, Fred Brune; first base, Fritz Nelson; second base, Harry Hoffman; shortstop, Manuel Baptista; third base, John Bird; left field, George Nelson; center field, Jimmy Sierra; right field, James Raser.

Address challenges to James Raser, 2111 Union street, Oakland.

GOSSIP FROM EASTERN
TURF

It seems that Handcapper Voeburg is unable to stop Rosebush with weight. If the son of Ben Strome keeps up his winning clip, we may see him carrying 150 pounds. What a sweet horse for a gambling owner. Davy Johnson is reported to have taken over $50,000 from the rags on his victories in the East.

There will be no trotting meeting at Indianapolis in August because of the attitude of Governor Hanly against pool selling, the meeting was formally declared off.

Commenting upon the recent riding of Jockey Crummins, an Eastern critic says: "Crummins has lost form completely. Promising as he was last season, he does not today class with a first-rate apprentice. He is as rattled-headed as a stable boy, and he will no longer take the chances a jockey must take to get any money."

C. R. Ellison is at Saratoga. His horses were shipped to the Spa from Buffalo Monday.

Conquest, the Victory colt which made his debut at Brighton Beach recently in the colors of J. H. McAvoy and finished a game second to My Buis, is on the tab of the Eastern critics as one that will do to bet on. This fellow is a three-year-old and out of Dorothy III, the dam of Joe Buckley, a fair player, and Weather-gauge, which did not amount to much.

Trainer William Brooks has discovered that Mandarin, the Hitchcock candidate for the Saratoga Special, stepped on a stone or some other hard substance in his race the other day. As yet he does not know if the lameness will prevent the colt's starting for the Saratoga "jack pot."

At the Sandow Summer meeting, Saturday, July 1, the English jockey O. Madden rode five of the six winners of the day, having no mount in the race in which he did not score. He rode the first four winners straight, did not ride in the fifth and then took the sixth. One of his mounts was an odds on favorite, but the others ranged from 9 to 4 to 20 to 1 against, so his followers had a feast of good things.

Tom Mannix says that Alvin is a much gamer horse than most trainers are willing to admit. It is true that he only recently got out of the maiden class, he says, "but he has shown courage that no sucker need possess."

Jockey Baird was given a pointed lecture by W. H. Snyder for his badly judged ride on Tyrone last Tuesday.

Copperfield has gone lame. It is said that he ruptured a ligament in one of his shoulders.

It is claimed that Trainer "Bob" Tucker and his party took at least $40,000 from the Brighton racing over the Victory of Hetrovaw recently.

Whimsical set a new track record at Brighton Beach on the other day when she ran five and a half furlongs in 1:06 1-5, displacing the previous record of 1:07 1-5, held jointly by Eugene's Burch, Africanador and Ocean Tide. She is easily the best of the Eastern two-year-old fillies.

Tongorider, the Canadian colt, which was defeated in the Derby at Fort Erie last year, is expected to make a comeback. Dymond hopes he will come back to the splendid form he showed in the spring.

Judge Himes has been entered in forty-five races this year, but scratched out of twenty-three of them. Of the twenty-two he has won only four races. He has been five times second, as many times third and eight times unplaced.

MARTY BERGEN HEARD FROM

Marty Bergen's handling of Buttons in last Tuesday's third race at Brighton Beach was watched with much interest. The veteran jockey sat bolt upright, using the old school of riding methods, which was in striking contrast to the style employed by the other jockeys in the race. When he got back to the paddock Bergen looked disgusted.

"Buttons could not have lost with a good 'jockey up' was the serious comment to a crowd of friends. Buttons ran in the name of Mrs. A. W. Hartstone and the bookmakers laid all kinds of prices against him because Bergen was in the saddle. Terry McGovern said that when he asked Sol Lichtenstein to quote a price against Buttons for $10 each way, the bookmaker gave him 150 to 1 straight place and third.

"I won $1,480," said McGovern afterward. "But I owe Sol $800; so I've only got $680 coming to me. If Buttons had won there'd been a picnic for me."

HAYWARDS, July 25.—In a rather tame game of baseball last Sunday, the Haywards nine defeated the Pacific Hardware and Steel Company's aggregation from San Francisco. The score was 10 to 3.

FEARS BODY BLOW TO SPORT

BY LEFT HOOK.
(In N. Y. Telegram.)

NEW YORK, July 25.—Will the greed for money cause the fight promoters to hit the game in the few remaining cities where boxing contests are still allowed? This is the question that is now being discussed by the fight fans throughout the country.

New York and Chicago, the two best fields for the sport, have been closed by petty quarrels among the promoters, although the fighters helped considerably by their shady contests. In light of one man's personal grievance was allowed to get the better of his judgment and the game received a knockout blow for some time to come.

Now in San Francisco trouble appears on the horizon. Billy Nolan, manager of Battling Nelson, wants to start trouble with Britt over the latter's fight with Sullivan. Nolan claims that Britt has no right to fight Sullivan before he tackles Nelson, and says he has articles of agreement calling for the first contest of any length.

Nolan has not made an excellent showing with Nelson, although he has won several fights, and on his recent trip East Nolan was probably the worst roasted man who ever came from the West. The Butte man who is handling the Dane evidently wanted everything in sight and all the money before he would allow Nelson to step in the ring. Nolan made two matches for his fighter while East that lost Nelson considerable prestige. Ahe told best Nelson to a standstill, and went around him like a hoop around a barrel. He made Nelson look like a novice, and the Dane was a sorry looking object when he left the ring. Later Nelson fought Tommy Sullivan in Baltimore, and again Nolan's judgment was criticized. Sullivan, according to the reports, had all the best of the fight and knocked Nelson out of the ring once.

Since Nelson fought Sullivan Nolan may be afraid that Sullivan might hit Britt to the bad, and he wants Nelson to fight the Californian first. What he can do in the matter remains to be seen, but certain it is that these fights between managers and promoters will do the game more harm than good.

Frisco has had its share of shady contests, and if the game is stopped, there the only place left will be Reno, Nevada, and how long will the promoters allow the fight game to exist in any city? The fight game is in a bad way, and the fight promoters are beyond understanding.

FITZGERALD VS.
"BAT" NELSON

John Reid, manager of Buddy Ryan, the champion welterweight pugilist of the world, is anxious to match Battling Nelson and Willie Fitzgerald for a twenty-round go in Frisco next month. Reid is handling Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald has been doing well in the ring since his defeat by Joe Gans about two years ago. The New York-born nineteen fights, taking on all comers. Reid thinks he will be a suitable man to pit against Nelson and he is anxious to get the fight on. He wants all the way to the Coast for the purpose of meeting the plumber boy, and if there is any possible chance to make the match, Nelson wants to see it. He feels he has more license than any other man in the ring to meet Britt, and it will certainly not be his fault if the fight does not come off.

FIRST REAL MOVE FOR PETITIONS AND PROTESTS BEAUTIFUL OAKLAND HEARD BY COUNCIL

Council to Spend $50,000 Dredging the Lake and Making Park South of the Dam.

In furtherance of the plans of the present administration for municipal improvement, Councilman Meese introduced an ordinance last night appropriating $50,000 for the dredging of Lake Merritt, and for the reclamation of the park site below the Twelfth-street dam.

It is anticipated that in about sixty days the ordinance will become law, and actual work will begin. The money is to be provided from the tax levy which will be fixed some time in September.

The dredging of the lake and the filling in of the marsh land south of Twelfth street are twin projects. When the ground is raised above the sea level it is the intention of Mayor Mott to convert the spot into a park. Additional land on the east side will be acquired by the city for park purposes.

When the new boathouse in contemplation is finished and the new park is in bloom Mayor Mott believes Oakland will have a spot of great attractiveness not only for the people of Oakland, but for the residents of other cities.

PORTION OF TELEGRAPH IS ACCEPTED

Vacation Time for the Firemen Has Not Yet Been Fixed by the Council.

The City Council, on the report of Superintendent of Streets Ott and City Engineer Turner, voted to accept Telegraph avenue, from Twenty-first street to Thirty-second. This will enable the contractors, Hillhouse & Reardon, to collect money from the property owners. The firm has had its money, estimated in the neighborhood of $50,000, tied up for about eight months, and was compelled to pay interest on this sum.

The street was accepted on all portions except where there were concrete curbs. These curbs will have to be replaced with granite ones at the expense of the property owner.

Councilman Thurston wished to lay the entire matter over until the curbing had been put in, but when it was explained that it was the duty of the Council to accept the "bifurcated" portion of the street he made no further objection.

FIREMEN TO REST.

The firemen of the city will not begin to enjoy their vacations as provided for by State law, for several weeks at least. Last night the Council referred the matter to the committee of the whole, to be considered when the tax rate is fixed.

The vacations as now planned will cost the city about $5,000 additional a year in revenue. Owing to this fact it was thought best to have the question of raising so large a sum referred to the committee of the whole when the tax levy is being fixed.

The provisions of the new law are that the firemen shall have one day in seven off, and that a continuous vacation of not less than five nor more than fifteen days shall also be granted each year.

WANTS STREETS WELL REPAIRED

MAYOR MOTT WOULD SEE THAT EXCAVATIONS ARE PROPERLY REPAIRED.

The following communication, addressed by Mayor Mott to the Council, relative to how streets are repaired, was referred to the Street Committee:

"Oakland, Cal., July 24, 1905.—To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Oakland—Gentlemen: In my inaugural message to your honorable body I made the following statement in referring to care of the streets:

"Improper refilling of the excavations made in streets is one of the most potent causes of street deterioration, and while it would be impracticable to wholly prevent the tearing up of our roadways by sewer contractors and those corporations furnishing public necessities, still I believe the evil could be reduced to a minimum by having the Street Department refill all excavations in a more careful manner and charging the cost of the work to the person, firm or corporation making the excavation. I would recommend the passage at once of an ordinance providing for the city to do this work."

"Further investigation and observation has more fully convinced me that the damage caused to our streets by the careless manner in which excavations are refilled is responsible for much of their deterioration. I would therefore again recommend that your honorable body take this matter up at once and secure the passage of an ordinance providing for all excavations to be refilled by the Street Department, the cost of same being paid by the parties opening the street.

"Trusting that you will give this your immediate attention, I have the honor to remain respectfully yours,

"FRANK E. MOTT, Mayor."

SAD CASE OF POOR LITTLE CHILD

NEW YORK, July 25.—An unusual case of poverty and neglect has been uncovered by a policeman on duty in Tenth avenue. The bluecoat rescued six-year-old John Mulqueen after the lad had made his home for two months in a trunk subsisted largely on scraps scavenged from garbage cans. The little fellow was found as a bird after his pitiful struggle with the world.

Mrs. Mulqueen died six months ago and the boy's father disappeared, leaving John in care of a neighbor. The building where the latter lived was condemned two months ago and she moved away, leaving the child behind. He sought out the house where his mother died and found an old trunk in the alley, in which he formerly had played.

Neighbors saw the youngster crawling in and out, but he fled when they approached, so they placed food near the trunk and the boy ate it.

The story finally reached the police and the young outcast was found nestling in a pile of old clothing and broken toys which he had gathered in the alleys.

IDAHO EDITORS ROBBED DURING NIGHT

Thief Stole Editor Bradley's False Teeth and He Cannot Enjoy the Many Banquets.

With members of their party robbed of their valuables and money, tired and worn, and an hour and forty minutes late the members of the Idaho States Editorial Association came in from Portland last night. They were met at the Sixteenth street depot by Captains Gleason and Martin of the San Francisco Police, collected evidence prior to making an arrest, which will be made upon the request of M. S. Parker, Secretary of the Association, who is in charge of the party.

The stealing occurred sometime during Sunday night while the party slept aboard their special train bound for this city. There was hardly a sleeper in one of the coaches that did not miss something when he awoke in the morning. Bert P. Mill of Idaho Falls lost one hundred and forty dollars. Another passenger lost a sixty dollar overcoat and a third all the loose change in his pockets.

It remained for O. V. Bradley, of Caldwell, to tell the story of the greatest and most inconvenient loss. He stated that when he retired Sunday, he placed his false teeth in his trousers pocket, a thing that he had never done before and upon waking found that both were gone.

The San Francisco and special police of the Southern Pacific Railroad were notified by telegraph and were at hand when the train came into Sixteenth street. So far no arrests have been made. Today the party visited this city and in accordance with its program, laid out by Secretary Stearns, of the Board of Trade, they started from the Key Route pier at 10 o'clock this morning. The party went to Berkeley and then came into Oakland. They had lunch at the Metropole, and then went to Alameda. From there they went on a fast train to Hayward returning to San Francisco direct.

The party is made up of the following: O. L. Bradley and wife, Idaho Odd Fellow, Boise; O. V. Bradley and wife, News, Caldwell; Bert P. Mill and wife, Times, Idaho Falls; J. R. Gregg and sister, Democrat, Ontario, Ore.; E. M. Gray and sister, Enterprise, Meladi; W. E. Smith and wife and son, Mail Blackfoot; Margaret McCallie, Star, Moscow; S. M. C. Smith, wife and daughter, Clipper, Boise; J. D. Plummer and wife, Signal, Watser; J. L. Weaver and wife, Herald, Mountain Home, Ellen Horn, Avatanch, Silver City; W. F. Sinclair, Record, Nampa; M. S. Parker and wife, Unionist, Boise; J. E. Roberts, Unionist, Boise; John Lamb and sister, Nugget, Silver City; C. E. Jones and sister, Hasten, Idaho City; J. P. Dunlap and wife, Outlook, New Plymouth; A. E. Gipson and daughter, Deputy, Lathum assisted by Post Grandee T. E. Silva, Fred Kruse, C. Neal and Fred Adams, installed the local newly elected officers in their various chairs. A large delegation of old fellows came up from Pleasanton for the occasion. The evening was concluded by a banquet.

DECIDES AGAINST COLLINS

JUDGE SAYS THAT HIS LAW POINTS ARE NOT GOOD.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 25.—Judge Lampman decided against George D. Collins, the lawyer charged with perjury, in the points raised by him in the extradition case now proceeding.

Judge Lampman said, in regard to the contention that the extradition act of 1883 had its application where it was inconsistent with the treaty and did not apply to perjury, as that offense was not a crime under the act, that the new treaty of 1898 or 1899, which made provision for extradition for perjury was made for the purpose of extending the list of extraditable crimes not specified in the old treaty and its effect was to make perjury an offense under the act.

The judge held that the act did not need an order in council to bring it into effect, as contended by Collins. He also held that the facts as alleged against Collins with regard to swearing to a false affidavit at San Francisco constituted perjury under the laws of Canada. Collins gave notice of appeal by habeas corpus proceedings.

M'CARTHY HAS BECOME A FIXTURE

Umpire Jack McCarthy has become a fixture in the American League, and his work with the indicator has been praised by the press as well as the players. Jack umpired that famous twenty-ninning game which Boston and Philadelphia recently played, and after it was over old Cy Young handed him a nice bouquet. Cy stated that Jack's work was almost perfect on balls and strikes. "I don't believe Jack missed over two or three strikes on me," said the great pitcher, which is high praise for an umpire who, had been on his feet for three and a half hours, splitting hairs for the players and fans. Until his health seemed to fail him, McCarthy umpired as good ball as any one would care to look at on the coast last year. He got along just as well as Slaters Davis, without bawling all around town what he proposed to do to the players who disputed his decisions. McCarthy is working for a man who stands by his men like no other league president does, so if Jack is not a success in the American League he never will be.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

THAT IS WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT THEM IN OAKLAND, AND IT IS, THEREFORE, RELIABLE.

Another proof, some more evidence, Oakland testimony, to swell the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

"J. J. Lawrence, miner, of 160 Seventh street, says: 'Lameness and pain across the small of a miner's back totally prevents a man from performing work, and even when the backache is not so pronounced as to prevent working it certainly is an aggravating annoyance. When in Ecuador, South America, I first noticed that in some way my kidneys were not performing their functions properly and aching across the loins ensued. Since then other attacks have occurred and I have been unable to do my work. I noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our Oakland papers and procured a box. If the first had not helped me I never would have bought a second, and if the second had not brought greater relief I never would have continued the treatment. You can say for me that Doan's Kidney Pills have depended upon me to do exactly as stated.'"

MILITIA MEN ARE ENTERTAINED

AFTER DANCE THEY HOLD A COMPETITIVE SHOOT ON RANGE.

LIVERMORE, July 25.—The members of the committee who had charge of the dance and social given Saturday night in honor of Battery B, used every effort to make the affair a social success and succeeded. The Sweeney Opera House, which is also used as an armory, was packed with dancers and spectators who had come to witness the special features which were to be put on between the dances.

A fancy drill was given by Battery B, which went through the various maneuvers with clock like precision, and were encored several times. The music was furnished by the new Livermore orchestra and was particularly good. On the following day, Sunday, a competitive "shoot" took place between the local team and the Battery B boys from across the bay, the latter being defeated by 116 points.

DECIDE ON THE GOPCEVIC WINS

TABLET SYSTEM CONTEST

HE IS ENTITLED TO THE LARGE ESTATE LEFT BY HIS WIFE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The Southern Pacific Company is preparing to install a new system for the operation of its trains over the Sierra Nevada mountains. In lieu of the present block system the entire Sacramento division from Sacramento to Sparks, Nev., is to be equipped with what is known as the tablet system. The tablet system is in use on all the English lines, has been in operation successfully for some years in Australia and has proved a successful experiment in the Baton mountains on the Santa Fe. James Agler, shortly before retiring from the position of manager of the Southern Pacific, investigated the operation of the system on the short stretch of Santa Fe track through the Baton mountains, and it is on the strength of his favorable report that the Southern Pacific is now to establish it on the Sacramento division.

The tablet system is designed to reduce the danger of collisions on a single-track road to a minimum. The claim is made that collisions are absolutely impossible under the system. A small steel tablet is picked up by the engine of a train at the entrance to a block while the train is running at full speed. The act of pulling the tablet from the machine in which it rests locks the block and prevents any other train from entering the block while it is so locked. At the end of the block the engineer throws off the steel tablet, which is recovered by the agent and placed in the machine at that point. This unlocks the block which the train has just passed, so that it can be entered by any other train going in either direction. While the blocks are clear a train can continue without interruption, but if a train comes to a block that is occupied by a train it will find the signals thrown against it, and if it attempts to enter the block against the signals it will run into a derailing switch.

The tablet machines are expected to arrive from the East within a few days, and the company expects to have the new system in operation within a month.

LAKEPORT, July 25.—Superior Judge M. S. Sayre has rendered a decision by which the $1,000,000 estate left by Mrs. Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd Gopcevic goes to her husband, Milos Miltrov Gopcevic, as she intended in her last will. The decision is a victory for the proponents of the will, the contest over which has been under consideration for nearly three months.

Mrs. Cora M. Keeler, Miss Ida Mathews and the other contestants will appeal from the decision.

The Court decides that the deceased was not of unsound mind and was not influenced by her intimate friend, Miss Elsie Prichard, in her marriage to Gopcevic, the Sacramento-street car line gripman, and the subsequent management of the large estate.

According to Judge Sayre's decision, the three trustees, who held the estate of Harry Floyd's mother in trust for her, will be obliged to turn over the bulk of the property, including the beautiful country seat at Kono Taysce on Clear Lake, to Milos Miltrov Gopcevic. A small part of the estate, about $10,000 and the house which Harry Floyd built on Sacramento street, will go to Miss Elsie Prichard. Mrs. Keeler and Miss Ida Mathews will receive only the $5 piece which was awarded to them in the will, while the rest of the contestants will fare almost as meagerly.

Judge Sayre's findings of fact are as appended:

"It is not true that from childhood up to her death Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd was subject to hallucinations, imaginations and delusions, nor is it true that she lived and impermanently a false and imaginary character or that she gave and clothed others with a false character."

"It is true that at times prior to the year 1901 Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd impersonated divers characters, but the said impersonations were at all times knowingly made by her without any hallucination, imagination or delusion whatever."

"It is not true that at any time while indulging in any impersonations she was utterly, or otherwise, oblivious to the realities of life and those things actually existing around her."

"Nor is it true that she ever sought encouragement from others in any hallucination, delusion or imagination. It is not true that she was offended by any opposition thereto."

"It is not true that she discouraged all opposition thereto, nor is it true that she was at any time possessed with any hallucination, delusion or imagination."

"It is not true that from the year 1899 up to the death of Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd Gopcevic Elsie Prichard was constantly with Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd Gopcevic."

"It is true that Elsie Prichard was with Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd Gopcevic during a part of said period, and lived in the same house with her. During all of said time their relations were those of intimate friends, and each possessed the confidence of the other, but at no time did Elsie Prichard occupy and maintain a position of legal trust and confidence with Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd Gopcevic."

"It is not true that Elsie Prichard ever at any time encouraged Harry Augustus Lyons Floyd Gopcevic in any hallucination, delusion or imagination."
